PREFACE TO SECOND EDITION Mr. Colville in his biography on page 85 gives strong testimony as to the beneficial effects, both upon his mental and physical powers, resulting from the exercise of spiritual gifts. Like benefits are even more strikingly shown by Dr. Davis, a graduate of medicine, who, now in his 83rd year, is busily engaged in the practice of his profession. The facts of Swedenborg's life afford a further illustration of the benefits associated with the use of psychic powers. It is well known that he was actively occupied in the production of his philosophical works until within a few months of his death. The Rev. Nicholas Collin, Rector of Swedenborg's church in Philadelphia, who visited Swedenborg in 1706 (N. Y. Sun, Sept. 6th, 1908), thus depicts his personal appearance: being very old (seventy-eight) when I saw him, he...
