

Tales of a House Wife (Paperback)

By Debbie Raymond-Pinet

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Tales of a house wife is a funny, emotional, advice given, loving book, that describes the life changes of one woman and her family. Coping mechanisms are discussed on how to maintain a busy schedule with two kids, finances, jobs, relationships, and post partum depression. It describes how life for this family of four dealt with illness, and slight disabilities. The book manages to speak of honest anxieties of being a caregiver, but also glamours the love that comes along with late night feedings, and dirty diapers. It contains black and white photos of the characters in the book to give the reader and inside look of the family. It s an easy read with humor, honesty, and hope. Just when you think you can t handle another feeding or dose of reality, the book puts a nice spin on those important moments. You ll read it knowing you felt the same way, or know someone who did. It s packed with info on how to manage every day life, along with your relationship, money, and kids....
