

Selected Poems (Hardback)

By Professor John Updike

Knopf Publishing Group, United States, 2015. Hardback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 234 x 178 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Though John Updike is widely known as one of America's greatest writers of prose, both his first book and his last were poetry collections, and in the fifty years between he published six other volumes of verse. Now, six years after his death, Christopher Carduff has selected the best from Updike's lifework in poetry: 129 witty and intimate poems that, when read together in the order of their composition, take on the quality of an unfolding verse-diary. Among these poems are precocious undergraduate efforts (including the previously unpublished Coming into New York), frequently anthologized midcareer classics (Seagulls, Seven Stanzas at Easter, Dog's Death), and dozens of later works in a form that Updike made his own, the blank-verse sonnet. The poems range from metaphysical epigrams and devotional poems to lyrical odes to rot, growth, and healing; from meditations on Roman portrait busts and the fleshy canvases of Lucian Freud to observations on sash cords, postage stamps, and hand tools; from several brief episodes in family history to a pair of long autobiographical poems,...
