Excerpt: . . . 10 MOBILIZING U. S. INDUSTRY IN WORLD WAR II NATIONAL D E F E N S E ACT OF 4 J U N E 1920 Charged the Assistant Secretary of War with supervision of the procurement of all military supplies and other business of the War Department to assure adequate provision for mobilization of materiel and industrial organizations essential to wartime needs Detailed to the office of the Assistant Secretary of War officers and civilian employees from the branches engaged in procurement, as authorized by regulations approved by the Secretary of War Directed that all chiefs of branches of the Army to report directly to the Assistant Secretary of War regarding all matters of procurement The Assistant Secretary of War now had under his control something that had been lacking in the Army for 150 years a more unified procurement apparatus and a directive to plan for future industrial mobilization. In October 1921 in his first memorandum orders the Assistant Secretary established a Procurement Division to supervise the procurement of all military supplies and other business of the War Department. . . and the assurance of adequate provision for the mobilization of material and industrial organizations essential to war time needs. This Division was further subdivided into a Planning Branch and a Current Supply Branch. From the start, the Planning Branch was under the direction of a full colonel, signifying its importance in those days of spare rank. He was accountable for planning for wartime procurement and industrial mobilization and was also the...
