This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Seminar paper from the year 2013 in the subject Law - Miscellaneous, grade: 1,0, University of Applied Sciences Wildau (Wildau Institute of Technology), course: Aviation Management - The Law of International Carriage by Air, language: English, comment: Task and grading by a former CEO of German Airports Association (ADV) and former Representative of the Federal Republic of Germany to the Council of the International Civil Aviation Administration (ICAO) in Montreal, Canada. , abstract: The invention of aircraft is a magnificent piece of technology, which is a result of a long process of human effort. With the use aircraft for military purposes during World War I it was shown that aviation had great potential even in time of peace. The essential role of aviation industry in everyone's life does not need any further explanation. Today's generations and those of the future have a quite natural interest in its development and safety. While flying offers various opportunities to mankind, at the same time, it is still a risky activity and accidents can be absolutely devastating. Even if aviation stands for one of the safest modes of transport, incidents will occur and people and airfreight will get damaged. The mentioned facts and the growing number and use of aircraft called for some kind of international regulation of aviation since from the very beginning (McNair 1964, p. 9). In general aviation is a global business, which creates a need for international common rules. Over the years there have been quite many attempts to hold an international convention on the area. It was from utmost importance to create an adequate and uniform compensation system for the passengers and cargo but at...
