By Thomas Kirkwood

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 330 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.9in. x 1.0in. Here is a truly original thriller, comparable to the very best of vintage Le Carr. It is set behind the Berlin Wall in the heart of the East German police state and it features one of the most unique and winning heroines since Lucy in Ken Folletts Eye of the Needle. Her name is Kte Frassek, a resistance fighter since the age of eighteen, who over the course of twenty years leads a double life in her courageous campaign to rouse her countrymen to revolt against their repressive regime. She is a wife, a mother, a scientist, a lover. . . and an assassin. Against a backdrop of the Cold War in the 1960s, an abiding love develops between Kte, while still the young wife of an East German official, and an American physician innocent of who she is and what she is doing. In the remarkable climax to her years of plotting against the head of the States secret police, she finally must risk not only her own life but her sons and lovers as well. (From...
