

Dealing with Turkey: The European Council of 16-17 December 2004

By Peter Ludlow

EuroComment. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Dealing with Turkey: The European Council of 16-17 December 2004, Peter Ludlow, The December European Council was about Turkey or, more specifically still, about whether and on what terms the EU should open accession negotiations with the Turkish government. The final decision was positive. It was only arrived at however, after lengthy and at times painful negotiations inside Coreper and the European Council and between the Presidency and Turkey. In his latest Briefing Note, Peter Ludlow provides a detailed analysis of how the decision was reached, and what it is likely to mean for both the Union and Turkey. Based as usual on confidential oral and written sources, it throws entirely new light on one of the most complex and important European Councils of recent years.

READ ONLINE
[4.09 MB]

Reviews

This book is definitely not straightforward to get started on studying but extremely exciting to read. It is really simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

-- Ally Reichel

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You wont feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).

-- Prof. Kirk Cruickshank DDS