Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Current Status of the Convention on the Law of the Sea: Hearing Before the Committee on Foreign Relations, United States Senate, One Hundred Third Congress, Second Session, August 11, 1994 The committee met at 10 a.m., in room S-118, the Capitol, Hon. Claiborne Pell (chairman of the committee) presiding. Present: Senators Pell, Murkowski, and Gregg. The Chairman. The committee will come to order. I apologize for the smaller room than usual, but we have some activity on the floor at the same time and this seemed most practical. I am very happy to welcome our witnesses to today s hearing on the status of the U.N. Convention on the Law of the Sea. As I am sure everybody in this room is aware, the United States recently signed the agreement relating to the implementation of part XI. As an individual who has had a long personal interest in and involvement with the convention, I was particularly pleased to participate in the signing ceremony just last week and to see the United States finally moving toward...
