It certainly had much less Of materiality in it than had the elaborate rites and sacrifices of the old order, concerning which Isaiah tells us that God declared, To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? Bring no. More vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting. What God required was this: Cease to do evil; learn to do well, and through all the ages this is the unceasing demand of divine Principle. In so far as any religious Observance tends toward this end, it should at least have our respect, even though we may have found a...
