Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Education and Chinese Agriculture My Dear Dr. Game well: - When that part of the report of the China Educational Commission dealing with agriculture was under consideration, conference was had with a group of agricultural workers. It appeared that they desired a somewhat fuller discussion of the agricultural problem in China and the relation of the Christian forces thereto, than seemed possible within the limitations of the regular report of the Commission. The Commission, therefore, authorized the preparation of a pamphlet and its presentation to the China Christian Educational Association for such use as the Association deems best. This statement is divided into three parts: - (1) A discussion of some reasons why the Christian educational enterprise should include agriculture. (2) An outline of the rural problem in China and the way these difficulties may be met, especially by education, - this being a report to the Government, also authorized by the Commission. (3) Some suggestions concerning what the Christian educational forces can do to help meet this problem. The pamphlet follows the recommendations of the Commission. In fact, all of the material was gathered as part of the work of the Commission. Under the limitations of time and method it was not possible to make a detailed study of Chinese agriculture nor of Chinese agricultural educational institutions. But both Chinese and foreign agricultural experts have been consulted and have checked the report at all points. Doubtless some duplications will be noted as between that part of the material which is a report to the Government and that part dealing specifically with Christian education; no attempt has been made to eliminate these duplications. About the...
