University of Nebraska Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Best of All Seasons: Fifty Years as a Montana Hunter, Dan Aadland, Since first learning to handle a Winchester .22 as a kid Dan Aadland has exulted in hunting "not as a sport but as a calling. In this book he takes readers to Montana's prairies and mountains in search of antelope whitetail deer moose and the occasional upland bird as he vividly describes the rituals and camaraderie of hunting culture. In fifteen essays recounting a lifetime of adventures Aadland spins tales of a hunter whose years have been enriched by pursuing game under Montana's big sky. He conveys the drama of stalking elk in deep snow when sometimes just the chance at a shot is enough and describes the tricks of bowhunting. He tells how hunting with horses was the real deal: planting one's foot in the stirrup and sensing an affinity with great hunters of the past. Underlying his memoir is a deep respect for wildlife and appreciation for the West. Sometimes nostalgic often humorous Aadland's book recounts the highs and lows of the hunt while revealing why the pursuit of game remains so important to so many people. The Best of All Seasons depicts hunting as an essential part of the good life suggesting that in our civilized age it yet remains a fundamentally natural act. In allowing readers a glimpse into that life this book simultaneously shows that for Dan Aadland fine writing comes just as naturally.
